BISHOP WILLIS

Determined Will of Majority Church.

The second congregation will not comply with the demand of Bishop Willis that its members join with him in one church of which he shall be the head until such time as it may be turned over to the jurisdiction of the Protestant Episcopal church of the United States. Instead, the second congregation, at a largely attended meeting held last evening in the Cathedral schoolroom, decided to appeal to the presiding Bishop of the Episcopal church in the United States, and if Bishop Willis refuses to extend the time of his ultimatum until such a reply can be received, to withdraw from the cathedral until then. The second congregation, confident that it is in the right, agrees to submit the matter in controversy to the Presiding Bishop and abide by his decision, asking only that they be allowed to worship in peace, until such decision may be received.
